

The Portland Conservatory of Music seeks a Piano Instructor to join their teaching faculty.

Responsibilities:

- Teach an established studio of 10-15 piano students with room to grow
- Teach piano students of varying ages
- Contribute to recruitment efforts

Potential Opportunities:

- Chamber ensemble coaching
- Performances within PCM Noonday series

Minimum Qualifications:

- Hold or be working toward a degree in Music Performance and/or Music Education with a focus in Piano or equivalent experience

Preferred Qualifications:

- Master's degree or higher in Piano or a related field or equivalent experience
- Significant experience with students of diverse backgrounds and ability levels
- Diverse performance experience

Classification:

Part Time, Hourly, Non-exempt

Compensation:

$50/teaching hour

Application Instructions:

Submit the following to Executive Director, Michael Lund Ziegler at Michael.LundZiegler@pcm.org:

- Cover Letter detailing interest in the position, vision for a piano studio at PCM, and teaching philosophy
- Resume or CV
- Playing sample

Position will remain open until filled

CONSERVATORY | COMMUNITY | EXCELLENCE | ACCESSIBILITY | MUSIC